

Zoe Zaparas and Cameron Jones
LINDENDERRY AT RED HILL, RED HILL, VICTORIA
5TH OF DECEMBER, 2009
PHOTOGRAPHY by David Fowler Photography

THESE PAGES After meeting in highschool, Cameron proposed to Zoe whilst enjoying a private romantic dinner overlooking expansive rainforest in Ubud. Ψ Bright and beautiful floral arrangements including lilies, peonies, hydrangeas, and roses in pinks, purples and yellows made a stunning impact at the reception. Ψ Wearing colourful and elegant full length dresses, Zoe's bridesmaids "looked magnificent – and so appropriate for the vineyard." Ψ Stunning in an Oscar de la Renta gown and veil, Zoe carried an elegant white peony bouquet. With a matching buttonhole and suave tie, Cameron's suit was tailor made. Ψ The couple's pretty tiered chocolate cake featured a small fruit cake as the top tier. Ψ Zoe and Cameron's order of service, created by one of Zoe's bridesmaids who is a graphic designer, featured the couple's monogram together with a whimsical tree design. Ψ Guest favour boxes tied with soft ribbon bows and monogrammed gift tags contained chocolates and sugared almonds. Ψ A funny moment for Zoe was when Cameron led her on to the dance floor at the end of his speech with a full box of plates to smash. "This is a Greek tradition which is rarely performed anymore, and it was a hilarious touch".
